NEWS FROM MONGOLIA CAMPAIGN

Fall edition

THANKS TO YOU, A SUICIDE WAS STOPPED

Enerel, a volunteer call center agent for the Mongolia campaign, personally experienced why we do these campaigns as she took a phone call leading to a man's salvation, both in this life and the next.

"I received a call from a 50-year-old man named Darkhanba. He shared with me that his life was so pointless and horrible that he was ready to commit suicide. But then he saw the Facebook video with Tsogtbayar's testimony and was moved by it because he has the same past as the pastor in that video."

Growing up, Tsogtbayar was exposed to drastic violence. As a juvenile, he stabbed a man in self defense. A few years later, his father committed suicide. A year after that, his brother murdered his wife, and was killed himself when the father of his wife avenged her death.

With such violence around him, it's no wonder he took to violence, having stabbed and robbed 8 people. Alcohol would become his only solace.

He ended up spending 12 years in prison where God met him through the work of some visiting missionaries. He has become a husband, father and pastor as a result.

"Darkhanba continued that he had tried Buddhism and is now practicing Shamanism, but he cannot find peace. When he saw the video, it gave him hope. He wants to know more about God and if God helps him, there are a lot of people in the area where he lives who suffer from alcoholism and need help. He will tell them all about Jesus. He has now been connected to a local pastor from one of our partner churches to look over him and nurture his faith. Please pray for him."

Through your financial support, Tsogtbayar's story was heard and saved Darkhanba's life.

But the work in Mongolia is not done yet. God is challenging you and me to step through another door... the full number of Mongolians has not yet come in.

Having seen God's tremendous empowerment of His Word in Mongolia these past 30 days, I am convinced that it would be a mistake to stop. Over 300,000 Mongolians have already responded to the Gospel for the first time. We must keep the momentum going. Too many souls are at stake.

But I can't do it without you.

A gift of only $25 will reach 200 more Mongolians with the Gospel

We can't bring this campaign to them without your help. Through your gift, will you serve once more as a gateway to God's unlimited and unconditional love for these hard to reach souls whom God loves?

I'M EXTENDING THIS HISTORIC MOVEMENT OF GOD IN MONGOLIA!

I want to be a part of what God is doing in Ulaanbaatar, in the very heart of the Asia-Pacific

OUR FOUNDER AND CEO, HANNU HAUKKA, returned from Mongolia where we currently have an exciting evangelism media campaign underway. His special report begins on the next page.

This campaign would not have been possible without your gifts and prayer support.

Meet some of the volunteers who are carrying the Good News with them, everywhere they go!

A taxi-cab driver who is volunteering the use of his car for the Lord!

Here is a local taxi cab driver... and his car! When the apostle Paul declared that we are to "... bring all things unto obedience under Christ", I wonder if this is what he had in mind! Every customer has the opportunity to experience the Power to Change message, as the audio recordings of our 10 Power to Change testimonies from the campaign book are playing in the background during their ride to work. What a great idea!

Munkhbat (right) is a blessing, as one of our volunteers working at the call center. He lives 120 km away and takes him 4 hours to arrive for his 8-hour shift. Using local transportation in Mongolia is difficult and time-consuming.

"I don't even feel tired after 8 hours... and it's a good thing too because we have already had hundreds of calls every day since the campaign started. Every call that comes in makes me feel so blessed!"

A grandmother and grandson preparing for a follow-up phone visit

This grandmother (above), is one of the hundreds of volunteers that have signed up for this campaign. She has a heart for evangelism and a longing to see her grandson become an evangelist too! No better time than the present!

We are never too young to learn this... I was 12 years old when the Lord ignited my heart for evangelism... that fire has never diminished. Let us pray for a life-changing experience for this young boy as he boldly represents Christ to those who are lost in Mongolia!

The local church and their volunteers are the most critical part of a successful campaign. Over 80 churches joined this campaign, and as you'll read on the next page, we needed everyone of them!

FROM THE U.S. MISSIONS DIRECTOR

“THE MYSTERY OF MINISTRY IS THAT WE HAVE BEEN CHOSEN TO MAKE OUR OWN LIMITED AND VERY CONDITIONAL LOVE THE GATEWAY FOR THE UNLIMITED AND UNCONDITIONAL LOVE OF GOD.” – Henri Nouwen.

What an amazing truth! As financial supporters and prayer warriors for this ministry, each of you has participated in this mystery. Each of you has been used as gateways for the arrival of the Kingdom of God.

Mega City Media Campaigns consistently testify to three different miracles:

1. The uniting of the local church in common cause
2. The mobilization of the saints for ministry
3. Radical new life, both for those who give the Gospel, and those who are receiving it

In this newsletter I hope that you will come to fully appreciate how your “limited and conditional love” has brought the “unlimited and unconditional love of God” to the men, women and children of Mongolia.

Serving Him and you,
Jerry Lewin

IMPACT REPORT FROM HANNU HAUKKA

Field report from Mongolia

Dear Ministry Friend,

WE HAVE SOME VERY GOOD NEWS FROM MONGOLIA! As I write these lines to you from Mongolia, we are witnessing the GCOMM high impact evangelism media campaign which is in its third week. And, it is bringing in beautiful results. As we spoke with the Ulaanbaatar campaign office staff today we were presented with the response in numbers.

The call center has received over 300,000 responses from Mongolians wishing to know more about God’s power to change in their lives in their land of Mongolia.

We are one third of the way through the mega city campaign. So far, the call center has received over 300,000 responses from Mongolians wishing to know more about God’s power that can profoundly change their lives as presented in mainline media across the nation’s capital city of Ulaanbaatar and across the nation. This means that the hearts of one in ten Mongolians have already been stirred triggering a response.

Thousands of calls and SMS messages have already been received with requests for a copy of the Power to Change campaign book. Every responder represents up to a hundred others who were impacted as well, but did not pick up a phone or go to a computer. Clearly, the Holy Spirit is at work. The campaign book is the primary tool for the churches as they reach out one-on-one to follow up those responding to the campaign message. As we stood in the campaign office one of the callers a young woman walked in to receive her copy of the book. Apparently, she is from the affluent side of society. She had called in a few days earlier and said she wanted to stop by to personally pick up her copy.

The life-changing stories in the book are showcased on television, outdoor ads, billboards, apartment blocks, the public transport system and on radio, as well as in social media big time. The Mongolian church leaders attest: “This high impact evangelism campaign has greatly accelerated the fulfillment of the Great Commission in Mongolia by taking the Gospel of Jesus Christ to multitudes that were previously unreachable by conventional means.”

Had the churches worked individually without the media, it would have taken the church more than 50-100 years to reach their people.

On the way back to home base, our GCOMM team stopped by a hillside Shamanist site where ancestral spirit worshippers gather for their rituals. Their loud drum beat and chants can be heard around the valley at night. Those living in proximity to the site are irritated by the noise.

Shamanist priests seek to intimidate and threaten families living close to the places of worship and are exposed to their rituals. They say that if one member of a family does not join them to become a Shaman, grave suffering and tribulation will fall upon the family.

CONTRAST THAT WITH THE WORDS OF JESUS: “For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son that whosoever believes on Him would not perish but have everlasting life!” and “The Son of Man came to seek and save the lost!” (LUKE 19:10).

The mega city evangelism campaign will continue in Mongolia for another 8 weeks. It is a ministry “to the ends of the earth” as Jesus had commissioned his followers to go and do (ACTS 1:8).

True, we live in very troubling times. But we remain focused on getting on with the task that Jesus gave his church, yes, amidst the calamity and the news of wars in Ukraine and the Middle East, and rumors of other wars. Jesus foretold this in Matthew 24.6-13: You will hear of wars and rumors of wars but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. And in verse 14 Jesus promised that this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

We ask you to pray for the continued presence of the Holy Spirit upon this bold Mongolia campaign and for protection of the staff in this Buddhist and Shamanist nation. We do lack significant funds to cover the outstanding bills from media agencies.

Media campaigns are costly, but they are ever so very effective in taking the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the nations. Thank you for partnering with us in this end time harvest.

May God bless you and your loved ones as we move forward in the fulfillment of the Great Commission.

Yours on His harvest fields,
Hannu, Laura and the whole GCOMM staff

“I came across one of the stories of changed lives. It deeply touched my soul and I wanted to read the rest of the stories as well. I wanted my own copy of the book “God’s Power to Change Lives”.” This young woman holds her copy of the campaign book close to her chest as a sign that the gift is very precious.
