

The Mongolian church leaders attest: "This evangelism campaign has significantly accelerated the fulfillment of the Great Commission command to Mongolia. We are taking the Gospel of Jesus to our nation which has been hard to reach by conventional means."

Mongolia Miracle Continues

The nationwide evangelistic campaign launched in October in Ulaanbaatar has far surpassed our imaginations and expectations. I can say this after personally overseeing similar GCM events in over 100 cities on four continents, partnering with literally thousands of indigenous churches.

Tens of thousands of Mongolians have been reached with the gospel message at special events. Additionally, hand-picked Mongolian believers, "heroes," shared their high impact testimonies on primetime secular television and radio shows throughout the campaign. Hundreds of thousands followed the campaign on social media. Already we hear of reports of new churches planted - and the campaign is not over!

The GCM Special Event in Ulaanbaatar Takes the City by Storm

A special event held at a palace-styled venue located at Central Square of the capital was explosive, exceeding all our expectations. It was undoubtedly the highlight of the campaign. More than 4,000 people attended to hear the Christmas Story of Christ's birth and His mission to save men and women everywhere of their sins. The Mongolian Evangelical Alliance had not had a similar event. Neither had the people of Mongolia. It is here that many local churches and groups of believers have now been established.

A large evangelism event in Uvs province

To the "Ends of The Earth

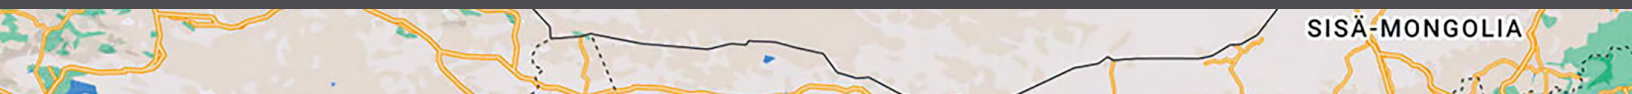

From the capital, the campaign has rapidly spread and is now targeting the outermost part of Mongolia, the province of Uvs.

The provincial capital of Uvs is called Ulaangom. The city is located 1,337 km (800 miles) west of Ulaanbaatar and 70 miles south of the Russian border. There in Ulaangom, "in the middle of nowhere" so to speak, thousands of Mongolians have gathered to hear the Gospel in unbelievable numbers, most, for the first time in their lives.

If we refer to the mission field as going to the ends of the earth and preaching the Gospel to all the world (Mark 16:15), the remoteness of the province of Uvs is certainly a prime example. It is hard to find a more isolated place. Maybe the South Pole comes close! (tongue in cheek).

The Move of God in Mongolia Resembles the Revival in Russia in the 90's!

The revival that swept Russia after the collapse of the Soviet Union has similarities. The Russian revival was the result of much prayer in both Russia and the West.

It is easy for nomadic herdsman of Mongolia to identify with Jesus' parable of the good shepherd: "Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Doesn't he leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it?

And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders and goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbours together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep.' I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent."

The Uvs campaign showed how powerfully the Gospel has spread in the uttermost parts of Mongolia. Vast numbers of Mongolians are nomadic people and an unprecedented number of them turned out for massive evangelism events like this one.

Young Mongolian volunteer evangelists traveled to the remote city of Ulaangom to help the church bring in a harvest of souls for the Kingdom of God. The story of the Mongolia Miracle does not end here. Stay tuned.

Troubling Times

May the Lord give you added new strength for each new day and the comfort of His word about troubling times: "You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come."

Thank you for praying for Mongolia. And thank you for your financial support that has made this evangelistic outreach in Mongolia possible. Every soul saved is a personal thank you for every dollar you have donated to this campaign. May the Lord bless your Easter Season abundantly.

With this Easter greeting from the Eastern Church, I also greet you: Surely Christ is risen from the dead,

Hannu Haukka
